

"18 years of single-molecule spectroscopy next to Ron"

Gilad Haran

" Eighteen years ago I arrived at the Weizmann Institute as Senior Scientist. A pink chair was waiting for me in my designated office. In my talk I will introduce this chair and discuss my scientific adventures with and without it. I will focus on the application of biological membranes for single-molecule and nanoscience, with and without Ron."