It is well-known that any 1d system of fermions on a lattice is equivalent to a system of spins. The equivalence is established by means of the Jordan-Wigner transformation. I will explain higher-dimensional analogs of this statement.