

In the first part of the talk I will review recently-proposed dualities between (non-supersymmetric) Chern-Simons gauge theories with matter in 2+1 dimensions, highlighting some of their interesting features and predictions. In the second part I will discuss some 't Hooft anomalies in 2+1 dimensions, useful to constrain the dynamics of quantum field theories.